Career training / Internship

This is an exciting way to gain experience in the chosen field that you want to explore. An internship gives you the opportunity to apply what you have learnt or are currently learning in a field that is related to your career plans whilst improving your knowledge of the English language. During the period of the programme, the trainee is assigned a mentor to be able to receive supervised practical training in the chosen field. Internships/Career training are related to your academic and career goals.

Before commencing on the internship, students must follow 60 English language lessons with NSTS – English Language Institute. Candidates for this programme are not remunerated and must commit to spending a minimum of 12 weeks + 2 weeks English training in Malta.

Work & Study / Working Holiday / Gap Year

The summer holiday atmosphere makes Malta ideal for a vacation job. Most of the better jobs are in the hospitality and services industries which expose participants to spoken English, making prior good knowledge a must. Back office and manual type jobs are also available. Each participant follows a preparatory course with a minimum of 60 lessons of General English spread over 2 weeks.

Through this programme, the participant may be remunerated (in cash or in kind) at €160 per week, less social security.

Volunteering gives you an opportunity to change lives - including yours

Volunteering in Malta is on the upswing with demand generated by NGOs and the public and private sectors for both skilled and unskilled but dedicated volunteers. These offer a variety of opportunities that range from applying one's university studies in a skilled position, to managerial, administrative and hands on jobs and on to contributing manual labour.

Proposals include environmental and ecological protection, helping in homes for the elderly, the less fortunate and the children, archaeological excavations, preservation of the heritage, teaching and educational activities and the like.

You will also follow a 2 week preparatory English course to facilitate your spoken English and will commit yourself to a minimum of 8 weeks of volunteering work.

English and Work Experience Junior Programme

Teachers of English in high schools frequently organise a class trip during the scholastic year that is normally subsidised by the local government or by the European Commission's Comenius project. NSTS welcomes these class or school groups and offers a full package that also includes accommodation at NSTS Campus Residence. The school group focuses on formal English lessons to practise the four language skills and complement their home studies of vocabulary and grammar with conversation opportunities and experiences. This English programme is supplemented by half day placements in various minor work positions of office or sales assistance for further practice of the language and an introduction to the world of work, complemented by information and animation activities.

Package includes:

- Airport arrival meet & greet and transfer
- Town orientation walk
- Accommodation on bed and breakfast in a shared multi-bedded room at our NSTS Campus Residence
- Work Experience placement
- 20 lessons of General English for Junior students
- 3 half days or evening activities that may include games, sports, tournaments, country walks, DVD watching, parties, dancing and presentations.
- Airport departure transfer

Price for first week: € 267 (01 Apr - 17 Jun, 2011 , 17 Sep - 22 Jun 2012). Additional week price: € 217
